

Society at Newport Enjoying the Early Summer

President's Expected Arrival Greatly Interests Newport

To Enjoy Golf Over Mr. T. Suffern Tailor's New Nine Hole Course by the Ocean—Tennis Draws a Fashionable Throng.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
NEWPORT, R. I., July 9. THE arrival of President Harding in August will mean an unusual programme of entertainment for the resort. As already announced, he will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. Suffern Tailor and will come from Washington. The President will play over the new golf course of Mr. Tailor, which is said to be one of the finest nine hole courses in the world.

Naturally Monday was a busy day in social circles, for with the holidays many joined the colony and there were several large entertainments. One of the chief events of the day was a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Dolan at Seaweed, when they entertained forty. Others giving parties were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Duncan at Bonniere, who had a luncheon, and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin B. Laughlin, who had a dinner at Land's End, the villa owned by former Gov. R. Livingston Beckman.

On Tuesday and Wednesday came two big gatherings at the Casino to witness the tennis play between the two English universities, Cambridge and Oxford, against Yale and Harvard. This event brought together the most distinguished assembly of the season. The display of gowns was most unique, with delicate shades of blue predominating. The Countess Laszlo Szechenyi and her children attended both days and had quite an unusual reception. Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, Mrs. Herbert Shipman and Mrs. John Aspregen were among the others witnessing the play, and all entertained parties.

Bar Harbor Colony Gathers Daily at Swimming Club

Popular Assembly Place for the Cottage Owners From Eleven to One.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
BAR HARBOR, Me., July 9.—This season the sole representative of diplomatic life here is Mr. Constantine Blum, Minister from Denmark, who has been a summer resident here for many seasons. A reminder of the past came last week in the death of Loring O. Collins, who was a hotel keeper here many years ago and conducted the Green Mountain House on the top of Green Mountain. There was then a railroad to the mountain top, but the venture never proved successful financially and the hotel was finally closed and later was burned.

A visitor to the Swimming Club at the popular hours, between 11 and 1 o'clock, is certain to find a crowd. This is the general gathering place, and since the club opened last Monday there has been much tennis playing on the fine courts and the pool has many habitués. In the afternoon many play golf at Kebo and quite a few of the younger people find amusement in sailing and canoeing.

The older visitors think that the resort is gradually changing to its old time form, when out of doors sports, including driving, mountain climbing, water picnics, as well as tennis and golf, had the call. The opening of the Lafayette National Park has done much to renew interest in tramping, especially as fine cars are given to the many picturesque paths. The National Park is also proving a great asset in advertising the resort.

More attention is being given to driving than for some years. As will be remembered, there was a long struggle to keep the road open for a long time, when the motor cars were admitted the summer residents ceased to bring their horses here. Quite a number are indulging in saddle riding and racing events at Morrill Park are being planned.

Real estate men here say that there is more demand for cottages from new people at the resort than for a long time. There has been almost no cottage building here for several years. It is reported that Mr. Louis B. McCagg is planning to build several cottages at Salisbury Cove, about five miles from the village. In the past few weeks eight desirable cottage estates have changed hands, although the prices paid are reported as less than would have been asked years ago. Mrs. Archibald G. Thacher of New York, who recently purchased Silver Birch, is reported to have paid $32,500 for this most desirable estate.

The noonday concerts at the Swimming Club started today and the Boston Orchestra will give daily concerts commencing at 11 o'clock and continue with dance music during luncheon.

There is a new record for the golf course at Kebo Valley Club, but not a new record holder, for the new score was made last week by Shirley Lascomb, the professional, in a match with L. C. Curlette of New York. Mr. Lascomb played the eighteen holes in 71, bettering his former record by three strokes. For the season, he is 129.

Borgy, Mr. Lascomb went out in 33, one stroke better than par, and came home in 38.

The new Cliff Hotel has had many new arrivals. Among them are Miss Marie Eastman of Boston, Mrs. Edwin S. Emery of Weymouth, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Everett of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stockton of New York and Mr. Luis Dos Passos of New York.

Mrs. Marjorie Turnbull Oelrichs has opened her shop in Bellevue avenue. Here each day her friends gather to make their purchases. Mrs. Oelrichs is present each day, with one clerk as an assistant.

Mrs. William Fahnestock gave a luncheon on Wednesday, and on Tuesday Rear Admiral and Mrs. William S. Sims gave a dinner at which some of the tennis players were their guests.

Joining the Colony.
Mrs. Amos Cutting Schermerhorn was among those joining the colony last week. She is the wife of Mr. J. Schermerhorn, who is a partner in the firm of J. Schermerhorn & Co., and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henry Warren at Seafield. Mr. and Mrs. Warren are expecting their daughter, the Countess Guy de Lestoyrie, for a part of August.

At the Hilltop Inn has been several guests the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. George B. de Forest are stopping there, and others include Messrs. J. Brooks Fenno, Jr., and Morris Duane of the Harvard tennis team.

Mrs. Vincent Astor is arranging for general luncheons and dinners to be given during the summer. She was one of those actively interested in the tea and reception in the open air on Monday at the Garden Association grounds.

George Eustis Corcoran, Mrs. Lyman C. Josephs and Mrs. Hubert Vos. Solo dances on the lawn were one of the features of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons have returned from Peru and are at Harbour View. The former has had his usual tennis matches at the Casino.

Today marked the arrival of two yachting parties to play over the new golf links of Mr. T. Suffern Tailor. In the gathering were amateurs and professionals, as well as golf architects and others who had assisted in forming the links.

A lawn fete for St. Mary's Orphanage will be held at Roslyn, the villa of Gen. and Mrs. Wilbur Elliott Wilder, on July 27, which will bring together many friends in the villa colony to work at the booths and other methods of entertainment.

New Craft at Thousand Isles

First Card Party Given by the Ladies Welcome Club—Arrivals.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., July 9. THE Fourth at Alexandria Bay witnessed the largest crowds at this resort that even the oldest pioneer can call to mind.

All of the hotels were packed and all the cottages had numerous guests. There were various entertainments given at the yacht club and at the cottages over the week end, and each hour of the holiday season brought some new gayety.

There were a number of new craft on the river, including the cruiser Miss Liberty of Mr. Humphrey Birge of Buffalo; Flick, the yacht of Commodore and Mrs. Frank T. Sullivan; Ervilla, the yacht of Col. Theodore C. Marceau of New York; Ruma, the yacht of Mr. H. W. Smith of Syracuse.

One of the interesting events ashore was the first card party given by the Ladies Welcome Club at the Yacht Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Strausburger of Gwynedd Valley, Pa., arrived Saturday and are at Dark Island for the season. Miss Marjorie Bourne, Mrs. Strausburger's sister, arrived earlier in the season.

Mrs. George S. Hasbrouck of New York is at her cottage on Manhattan Island.

Mrs. Eibert LeFevre of New York is spending the summer at Edgewood Park.

Guests on Canadian Side.
Gordon Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brush and Mr. Robert P. Noble of Greenwich, Conn., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Noble on the Canadian side.

Mr. Gordon H. Thing of Rochester, who purchased the island cottage of Mr. Houston Bernard, has arrived.

Walter Merrill and William T. Koch of New York entertained at luncheon at the yacht club Sunday, their guests being the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Graham Miles, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Boldt, including Mrs. Jessie Graff, Arthur Fletcher, Edgar Sierck, Mr. and Mrs. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Boldt, Mrs. John West Horner and Miss Beatrice Miles, Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart Brown.

Entertained at a buffet supper at their home on Sunday evening, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McNally, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hoyt, Dr. and Mrs. J. Miles Gibbons, Mr. Boldt, Mr. Fletcher, Mrs. Graff and Mr. Sierck.

Capt. Mark Bradley, Capt. David Lauder and Milton H. Statler of St. John's School, Manlius, are the guests of Lewis F. McClelland at Shady Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cutler of New York are the guests of Mrs. Cutler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Rubenstein, at Murray Hill.

Messrs. R. S. Corbell, E. N. Burns and W. D. Benson of Montreal are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Benson at their cottage.

Judge and Mrs. George H. Hooker of Watertown, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Graham Miles, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joy and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Henley of Syracuse are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Frazer at Neirford Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Frazer gave a dinner at the yacht club on Monday evening, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. Henley, Mr. and Mrs. Joy and Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Watson of New Brunswick, N. J., are at the Crossman House. They were the guests of honor on Tuesday evening at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Young at the Thousand Islands Yacht Club.

New York residents registered at the Crossman are Mr. and Mrs. L. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Black, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ritchie, Miss Stella Noyes, Mrs. Mary Burns, Mrs. M. Cochran, T. B.
